Sparkling Droplets

All living spaces grant an unrestricted view of the magnificent panorama, generous glass façades provide plenty of sunlight. And Gecko protects against unwanted glances.

Starting Point

The top-to-bottom and end-to-end glass facade of this luxurious residence also spans both fronts, providing a panoramic view but not allowing for much privacy.

Solution

Gecko combines functionality with esthetics. Without having to take any constructional measures, Gecko is able to ensure privacy and fits into the overall facade optimally.
