Private residence Dieter Schmidt

Using textiles to make rooms more comfortable.

Starting Point

Dieter Schmidt redesigned this 1970 private residence for the first time in 1990. An annex was now added to the garden level, with large window panels and open spaces. So the interior designer was asked once again to furnish the new rooms using the Cotton & Stories collection.

Solution

As part of the Carte Blanche project, Dieter Schmidt expertly and selectively used the Cotton & Stories collection in the rooms. Textile textures have been combined in harmonised colours, and red accents are a common thread in the overall design. The rooms are characterised by their composed and straightforward furnishing.
