EF Education First Regional Hub – London

Modern office space equipped with a Création Baumann classic.

Starting Point

In Chelsea, London EFers have 32,000 square feet of sparkling new office space—and it's not just desks and meeting rooms. The renovated second floor features an auditorium for larger meetings and professional development events.

Solution

EF selected Jaspis II as the sheer throughout the meeting rooms as the fabric has a beautiful, classic and timeless feel, adding elegance and sophistication to the modern office environment.
