Hotel Märthof – Basel

Charm, liveliness and the eventful history of the house are also reflected in the interior design.

Starting Point

The historic building on Basel's market square has been completely renovated and converted into a boutique hotel in the 4-star category.

The Märthof shines in all its glory and has become a special place – for Basel residents as well as for guests from Switzerland and abroad.

Solution

The charm, liveliness and eventful history of the building are reflected in the interior design: decorative details of past style eras complemented by natural materials.

The jacquard fabric with the newly interpreted, timeless design of ornaments looks classic and modern at the same time.
